

JOHN WALLIS AS CORRESPONDENT AND CONTROVERSIALIST

Jesus College, Oxford; 12 – 14 April 2010

————— Programme —————

MONDAY 12 APRIL

CHAIR: PIETRO CORSI

17.00 Welcome and opening of the Symposium

17.15 Doug Jesseph (University of South Florida)

Wallis and Hobbes

TUESDAY 13 April

CHAIR: NOEL MALCOLM

9.30 Jackie Stedall (The Queen's College)

Wallis as controversialist: the arguments with the French

10.45 COFFEE / TEA / JUICE

11.15 Niccolò Guicciardini (University of Bergamo)

Wallis as correspondent and editor of Newton's mathematical work

13.00 LUNCH

14.00 Conducted tour of the University Archives

HOST: Simon Bailey (Keeper of the Archives, University of Oxford)

15.45 COFFEE / TEA / JUICE

CHAIR: CHARLES WEBSTER

16.15 Will Poole (New College)

Vectors in Oxford-London relations in later 17th-century scholarship

17.30 Philip Beeley (Linacre College)

'At their majesties service': Wallis as cryptographer and controversialist

WEDNESDAY 14 April

CHAIR: RHODRI LEWIS

9.30 David Cram (Jesus College)

Wallis and grammar

10.45 COFFEE / TEA / JUICE

11.15 Jaap Maat (University of Amsterdam)

Wallis and Holder on teaching language to the deaf

Auditors are welcome.

Enquiries should be directed to David Cram at david.cram@jesus.ox.ac.uk.

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

Philip Beeley
David Cram
Jaap Maat